Dear Harry:

The arrival this week of the August Newsletter reminded me that I had neglected to answer your letter of June 24th regarding the elimination of "gratis" distribution of the publication.

I confess that I had not realized that I was receiving the publication on a charity basis. Judging from conversations at some of the conventions as the various organizational setups were discussed, I assumed that I received it rightfully.

Will you send me information on fees for the associate membership mentioned in your letter as well as the necessary application blanks. Although it is true that we have a construction permit from the FCC, I do not know when we will have a station. I presume that the associate membership may be best until the station situation is clarified. When I have such information about fees and application blanks for the associate membership, I can review the situation with the Chairman of the Broadcasting Committee, Mr. Arthur Brandon.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

In connection with the editorial work on the third edition of the Biographical Directory of LEADERS IN EDUCATION, we would appreciate it if you would send to us a recent list of the membership of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters.

We shall be glad if you will place our name on your mailing list so that we may receive subsequent revised lists.

SUBJECT: Memorandum of August 7 from John W. Dunn, Chairman Membership Committee, Relative to Applications from Flint and Battlecreek, Michigan

Of course I am ready and willing to vote into Active Membership the Board of Education of the City of Flint and to Associate Membership the Battlecreek Public Schools.

However I would like to raise a question of form. In his memorandum John says, "If no protests are received in the office of the Executive Director of NAEB by August 20th, 1952, the applications as noted below will be considered passed by the Board of Directors and the applicants will be so notified by the Executive Director."

This may be a somewhat picayunish point to raise, but Article I, Section (1) of our constitution says: "Any university, college, school, or other educational or public service agency of recognized standing engaged in educational, non-commercial broadcasting over a radio station controlled by it, or holding a construction permit for such a station, may be elected to membership by the Board of Directors."

I wonder if the underlined phrase doesn't require positive action rather than the absence of a veto? That is, doesn't this require a majority of a quorum of the Board to vote affirmatively on an application to membership rather than merely the absence of any protests?

Perhaps Brother Frank Schooley, our constitutional interpreter, can give us some guidance here.

TO : Officers, Directors and Members, Membership Committee

FROM : John W. Dunn, Chairman, Membership Committee

Sept. 22, 1952

So far, I've received only three reactions from officers and board members and ~~two~~ reactions from the Membership Committee regarding my memos of Sept. 10 & 11 which had to do with some very pressing problems concerning membership in NAEB.

Now several of you are concerned over the TV lads and how we shall handle them in NAEB. Article IX of the By-Laws of NAEB clearly states among other things: "Radio Broadcasting, TELEVISION and Facsimile are included in the term BROADCASTING as used within these By-Laws". Therefore, we can legitimately include television not only in the title of our association but also in the basic overall concept of NAEB.

Although we need no general overhauling of the constitution and by-laws to bring educational TV stations into the fold, there are some notable changes which ought to be made -- both in the Constitution and the By-Laws -- so as to be consistent with the spirit and intent of both the Preamble to the Constitution and Article IX.

(1) ARTICLE I (A) of the Constitution of NAEB should be amended to read as follows: "Any university, college, school or public service agency of recognized standing engaged in educational, non-commercial broadcasting over a radio station AND/OR A TELEVISION STATION controlled by it or holding a construction permit for EITHER A RADIO OR TELEVISION STATION may be elected to membership by the Board of Directors.

The caps are the changes I propose making. To this article I would add: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT ANY SUCH UNIVERSITY, COLLEGE, SCHOOL OR PUBLIC SERVICE AGENCY SO ELECTED TO MEMBERSHIP ON THE BASIS OF A CONSTRUCTION PERMIT AND WHO ALLOWS THAT CONSTRUCTION PERMIT TO LAPSE OR IS DENIED RENEWAL BY THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION SHALL AUTOMATICALLY REVERT TO ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP.

(2) Nothing needs to be done to ARTICLE I (B) so far as television is concerned since by definition in Article IX of the By-Laws broadcasting includes Television.

However, I am in favor of striking out the word, "INDIVIDUAL" to be found in Article I (B) and setting up another classification, I (C) to read as follows:

(C) The Board of Directors of the NAEB may, by unanimous consent, extend INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP to those persons (1) who have rendered outstanding service to the association over a period of years as a representative of either an Active or Associate member of the association in good standing; (2) who shall have made a distinct contribution to the cause of educational broadcasting in America.

(3) In the By-Laws of the Association, Article III, Section 1 a, ACTIVE DEFINITION should have the following changes, ".....engaged in educational, non-commercial broadcasting over a radio station AND/OR TELEVISION STATION, shall be, etc., etc...." The caps are the changes I propose making.

(4) ASSOCIATE definition as found in Article III, Section 1 b of the By-Laws needs no change to include Television. Here again I am in favor of striking out the word, "INDIVIDUAL", and setting up Section 1 c which would read as follows:

Section 1 c INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS so elected to the NAEB as prescribed by the Constitution shall have no voting power and they cannot be elected to any constituted office of this association. They may, however, be extended the privilege of the floor at regularly stated conventions of the association.

Make these changes and you can carry the educational TV stations along with us. BUT I am inalterably opposed to changing those portions of Article III, Section 1 a of the By-Laws which reads as follows: "Shall be eligible for active membership in the association to the extent of one membership for each institution, irrespective of the number of stations operated by the member"....and....."Each active member shall be entitled to one vote and shall be entitled to participate in all affairs of the association".

Here the emphasis is on INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIP and not on how many radio and TV stations may be operated by the institution. When a great number of us added FM station to our operations, no one got any more votes.

Furthermore, I am of the opinion that we should hold to the FCC's definition of an educational TV station. I well remember the hassel we had over some of the radio operations that went commercial but still wanted to be in NAEB. A commercial TV station is commercial whether it's operated for non-profit or not. To depart from the basic principles which have been established over the years by blood, sweat and tears would be making a grave mistake.

The fact that only one vote is allowed an institution, regardless of how many broadcast stations they may operate, does not preclude the fact that the institution and its broadcasting personnel can be very active in the affairs of NAEB. Nor does it keep any institution from sending as many representatives to national meetings as the old pocketbook will allow. And these people can be appointed to committees as per the Constitution and By-Laws and can have a vote in the business of these committees.

In this connection, I am in favor of overhauling our whole concept of NAEB which is geared too much to the horse and buggy days of the association. With the advent of the School Broadcast station and more lately the educational TV station, it seems logical there should be spheres of activity incorporated into the thinking and work of NAEB:

RADIO

1. The general educational radio operation (either AM or FM) with perhaps greater interest on general adult programming but may include on a secondary level in-school broadcasts.
2. The school broadcast stations (mostly FM) which serve the classrooms of the system which sponsors the station. Some programs of general interest but in the main the emphasis is on the school room audience.
3. The production center which uses facilities not its own. No problems of station operation. Emphasis wholly on production either for general audience or school room.

TELEVISION

The educational television operation may eventually have to be divided very much as radio. Right now two divisions will suffice:

1. Educational television station.
2. Television production center.

While each of these groups have many things in common, still they are each faced with many special problems which are not of general interest beyond their kind. How we can plan the work of NAEB so that it can more effectively serve these special interests, I am not certain at this moment. Maybe we should have several Vice Presidents whose job would be to serve these groups. It's certain the President or an Executive Director can't do it all.

SOMETHING OUGHT TO BE DONE ABOUT ALL OF THESE THINGS. I'm getting tired of everything in the association being geared to the $ mark. Our Board meetings are taken up with haggling over foundations and money. We're forgetting the very spirit and essence of educational broadcasting and the soul we may win in its name. Important changes are proposed....nothing is ever done about. I think it's time we got the lead out of our collective breeches and attack some FUNDAMENTAL problems that will get us to wheeling.

Thanks for your good letter of November 15. However, if I may, I'll disagree with you again. I feel that we should proceed to process membership applications on a regular basis. If Graydon is not quite ready to appoint his committees, may I suggest to him that he informally appoint you on an interim basis until all committees are formally announced? Until he takes such action, I will continue to send the applications to you for your possible use.

In that regard, I am enclosing with this letter two more applications.

Dear Mr. Armsey:

The NAEB Board at its meeting in Minneapolis approved your application for affiliate membership in NAEB. As you know, we are also carrying New York University as an associate member through your radio club.

By definition, active members own and operate their own stations. Associate members regularly produce programs for use over stations they do not own. Affiliate members neither own their own stations nor produce programs regularly but are interested in educational broadcasting and wish to be kept informed of its progress.

Anyone who is an affiliate member of this organization and who at any time in the future qualifies for either associate or active membership can automatically be put in those classes merely by notifying the Executive Director.

Perhaps the greatest good of an NAEB membership is the associations you form. It's good to know that others are having the same problems you are and how they are solving them. It has been the tradition with NAEB to exchange this sort of information on a friend-to-friend basis. You'll find lots of friends in NAEB.

I trust we have handled your application as you wished us to handle it. If you have further questions, please do not hesitate to write me.

Sincerely,

FROM: John W. Dunn, Chairman, Membership Committee 1/29/53

Many of you have asked for information on the new membership requirements. The December issue of the NEWSLETTER carried an article on this, Page 9. Please refer to it.

Thru an error on the part of the Chairman, the application of the BALTIMORE, MARYLAND BOARD OF EDUCATION was classified as Active. It should have been, ASSOCIATE. Since the vote has already been taken on this application with Dunn, Schooley and Siegel voting for active membership and Miller and Miles voting for Associate Membership, I am therefore requesting those of you who voted on the basis of Active Membership to revote on the basis of Associate Membership.

The following applications have been received from Headquarters:

THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI, Columbia, Missouri

Associate Membership

Accredited by the North Central Association

Both Speech and Journalism Departments maintain complete studios for practice work. Both of these departments maintain radio workshops. The School of Journalism works with Radio Station KFRU in the preparation and presentation of 13 daily newscasts.

Journalism School maintains one instructor and four graduate assistants; Speech Department, one instructor and four assistants.

This application is for ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP. However, since the University of Missouri's application for a TV station on a Commercial Frequency has been granted, it raises an interesting problem as to whether or not we can consider this the basis for active membership. This is especially true in light of the statement from Dean Earl English of the Journalism School, "Despite the fact that this (the TV station) is to be listed as a commercial station, our primary purpose will be education". In spite of this assertion, it is my opinion that we should proceed cautiously and wait to see just what their program policy will be.

Missouri maintains rather elaborate set-up in Radio Journalism but offers only three courses in Radio Speech.

NORTHERN STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE, Aberdeen, South Dakota

Associate Membership

Accredited by American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education & North Central Asso.

Small studio at present. Plan to buy complete broadcast equipment current year for permanent studio. Use facilities of KSDN, Aberdeen, a 1 kw station. This is their first year in broadcasting. Presently doing one half hour program weekly. Plans are to increase their offerings.

Offer two courses in radio, one on a year basis, the other on a one quarter basis.

When the University membership was approved, I asked Mr. Schooley, the treasurer, to carry the University membership in the name of Warren A. Kraetzer, our Radio-Television Coordinator.

Perhaps I should have written to you directly at that time. Since Mr. Kraetzer is specifically assigned to this activity, I should appreciate it if you would transfer the institutional membership from my name to his.

Dear Mr. Miller:

Please permit me to welcome you to membership in the NAEB and to assure you of our interest in making the full facilities of our organization available to you in any way wherein we may be of service.

The National Association of Educational Broadcasters, now 28 years old, has always been the voice of educational institutions and individuals who are interested in utilizing radio and television as an educational tool. During the past several years the organization has increased its activities many times and its scope of influence. You are, no doubt, aware of the NAEB Tape Network whereby many of the world's finest programs are made available for broadcasting on the educational stations throughout the country. This activity has expanded from a three programs per week "bicycle" network to direct service on approximately eight hours of programming per week. During the past twelve months, through direct negotiations with countries of Western Europe, we have increased the flow of cultural and informational programs in both directions to a considerable extent and expect to expand our international exchange considerably during the current year.

Each year NAEB conducts several seminars and workshops for the upgrading of personnel and through a grants-in-aid program made possible by the Fund for Adult Education has been able to contribute to the improvement of programming on the local level to a significant extent. (This year we have created a special committee within the organization, headed by Mr. Gale Adkins of Radio House at the University of Texas, to devote particular attention to the problems of our associate members, and two special committees are spending a considerable amount of time to the problems of school stations.) We hope to continue to serve the needs of educational radio and television stations and educational radio and television production groups increasingly in the future.

I trust that your membership in NAEB will offer stimulating and rewarding contacts, information, and services during the year ahead. Please feel free to call upon me directly or upon our headquarters office for any services we may be able to render.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Franklin Miller:

I am very happy to inform you officially that the Board of Directors of NAEB has approved your application for associate membership in our association.

You will now be receiving regularly from us the monthly NAEB News-Letter, additional publications of interest, and many other things. You should, of course, feel free to write to this office at any time for any information concerning educational broadcasting.

Under separate cover we are sending you a copy of the NAEB Radio-Television Bibliography, which we hope you will find helpful.

Perhaps the greatest good of an NAEB membership is the associations you form. It's good to know that others are having the same problems you are and how they are solving them. It has been the tradition with NAEB to exchange this sort of information on a friend-to-friend basis. You'll find lots of friends in NAEB.

MEMORANDUM

14 February 1953

TO: Officers and Directors NAEB
FROM: Burton Paulu
SUBJECT: Membership Application of Providence Bible Institute

I just finished looking over John Dunn's memorandum of February 10, 1953, relative to several applications for NAEB memberships, one of which is from the Providence Bible Institute.

I am voting "yes" on all of the applications in this lot except for this bible institute. My reason for withholding approval of them is that the only information available as to their accreditation is that they are "Accredited by Collegiate Division of the Accrediting Association of Bible Institutes and Bible Colleges."

The thing we should insist upon is that when we are dealing with educational institutions or schools, they be accredited by the state universities of their respective states. This is a practice generally followed in educational circles, and I think we should do likewise. Most of these bible institutes are not so accredited which is probably the reason they set up their own accrediting organization.

If and when this bible institute is accredited by the state university of Rhode Island -- meaning that if it is of high school rank its graduates are received by the university, or if of college rank, its credits are transferable to the university -- I will certainly vote yes; otherwise I shall vote no.

Let me state at this time that I think the form John has adopted in circulating applications for membership is an excellent one. It supplies us with the information we need and with a convenient ballot. Congratulations, John, for the way you bring these matters to our attention!

I am very happy to inform you officially that the Board of Directors of the NAEB has approved your application for affiliate membership in our association.

You will now be receiving regularly from us the monthly NAEB News-Letter, additional publications of interest, and many other things. You should, of course, feel free to write to this office at any time for any information concerning educational broadcasting.

Under separate cover we are sending you a copy of the NAEB Radio-Television Bibliography, which we hope you will find useful.

You will note that you are classed as an affiliate member. The association at its last convention in Minneapolis decided that now was the time to broaden its membership base. Hence, it created a new type of membership known as affiliate.

By definition, active members own and operate their own stations. Associate members regularly produce programs for use over stations they do not own. Affiliate members neither own their own stations nor produce programs regularly but are interested in educational broadcasting and wish to be kept informed of its progress.

Any one who is an affiliate member of this organization and who at any time in the future qualifies for either associate or active membership can automatically be put in those classes merely by notifying the Executive Director.

Perhaps the greatest good of an NAEB membership is the associations you form. It's good to know that others are having the same problems you are and how they are solving them. It has been the tradition with NAEB to exchange this sort of information on a friend-to-friend basis. You'll find lots of friends in NAEB.

Sincerely,

Frank E. Schooley

Dear Mr. Pettitt:

Please permit me to welcome you to membership in the NAEB and to assure you of our interest in making the full facilities of our organization available to you in any way wherein we may be of service.

The National Association of Educational Broadcasters, now 28 years old, has always been the voice of educational institutions and individuals who are interested in utilizing radio and television as an educational tool. During the past several years the organization has increased its activities many times and its scope of influence. You are, no doubt, aware of the NAEB Tape Network whereby many of the world's finest programs are made available for broadcasting on the educational stations throughout the country. This activity has expanded from a three programs per week "bicycle" network to direct service on approximately eight hours of programming per week. During the past twelve months, through direct negotiations with countries of Western Europe, we have increased the flow of cultural and informational programs in both directions to a considerable extent and expect to expand our international exchange considerably during the current year.

Each year NAEB conducts several seminars and workshops for the upgrading of personnel and through a grants-in-aid program made possible by the Fund for Adult Education has been able to contribute to the improvement of programming on the local level to a significant extent. We hope to continue to serve the needs of educational radio and television stations and educational radio and television production groups increasingly in the future.

I trust that your membership in NAEB will offer stimulating and rewarding contacts, information, and services during the year ahead. Please feel free to call upon me directly or upon our headquarters office for any services we may be able to render.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Merle:

I am very happy to inform you officially that the Board of Directors of NAEB has approved your application for active membership in our association.

You will now be receiving regularly from us the monthly NAEB News-Letter, additional publications of interest, and many other things. You are also immediately eligible for the NAEB Tape Network service, as you know. You should, of course, feel free to write to this office at any time for any information concerning educational broadcasting.

Under separate cover, we are sending you a copy of the NAEB Radio-Television Bibliography, which is issued to all NAEB members. We trust you will find it useful.

Perhaps the greatest good of an NAEB membership is the associations you form. It's good to know that others are having the same problems you are and how they are solving them. It has been the tradition with NAEB to exchange this sort of information on a friend-to-friend basis. You'll find lots of friends in NAEB.

You will note that you are classed as an affiliate member. The association at its last convention in Minneapolis decided that now was the time to broaden its membership base. Hence, it created a new type of membership known as affiliate.

By definition, active members own and operate their own stations. Associate members regularly produce programs for use over stations they do not own. Affiliate members neither own their own stations nor produce programs regularly but are interested in educational broadcasting and wish to be kept informed of its progress.

Any one who is an affiliate member of this organization and who at any time in the future qualifies for either associate or active membership can automatically be put in those classes merely by notifying the Executive Director.

Dear Frank Byrnes:

Following your meeting with Allen Miller, the NAEB Board of Directors approved of the exchange of two memberships between NAEB and AAACE. I believe it was understood that the exchange would be on the basis of no charge to either association and that the representatives would be the president of each and the executive director of each. The NAEB president is Graydon Ausmus, Director of Radio and Television, University of Alabama, University, Alabama.

Looking toward June 1, I suggest you carry immediately the name of Dr. Harry J. Skornia as NAEB executive director, 119 Gregory Hall, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois. Until that time, I am serving as executive director and will get all of his mail. This will simplify changing the official records within the next few weeks.

NAEB is looking forward to the mutual benefits which will come about through closer liaison.

TO : Regional Directors, NAEB

FROM: John W. Dunn, Chairman, Membership

4/24/53

By this time, gentlemen, all of you have had a chance to study the membership materials which were recently sent you. As a check list, may we remind you that these material. consisted of the following:

1. Active members in each region
2. Associate members in each region
3. Potential active members in each region
4. Potential associate members in each region

In the case of the potential active members, these are schools which now have a station in operation or a CP for one but are not members of NAEB. The potential associate members are production centers of universities and colleges which are located in cities and towns in which there are one or more radio or TV stations.

The gimmick for the potential active members is the NAEB Tape Network which now has 83 members out of the 98 active members on our rolls. Recently, at Columbus The Board of Directors voted, as you recall, to set up a Radio and TV Script Exchange. That's the core on for the associate member potentials. Now in all of this we have not and will not at this time make any pitch for the high school production centers. After we have surveyed the field for the colleges and universities, then I have a plan for going out after the high school production centers as associate members.

What's the reason for all this ballyhoo for members? Here it is in a nutshell, boys:

We want to get every institution in America that's interested in educational broadcasting in the folds of NAEB. In that way we can stifle any opposition before it can get started too far. By by offering these people something in the way of service, we can keep them satisfied.

But all of this is going to take WORK...LOTS OF WORK on the part of regional officers. In large regions, you may want to get the help of the active members in each state. I think they can get the low-down on these potentials and can help the regional offices by a follow through of their own.

Whatever plan you choose, the important thing is to get busy today and start this thing wheeling. Our goal for NAEB by October 1, 1953 is 250 members. If we can exceed that figure, then so much the better.

On a separate sheet are some salient facts about NAEB membership, dues, etc. You may want to mimeograph or ditto this information for distribution. But your letter to the prospective member should be a personal one typewritten especially for them.

Once you've made your initial attack and receive a favorable reply, then forward full details to NAEB Headquarters so that application blanks can be sent immediately. Headquarters should notify you when these have been sent so that you can follow through with a nice letter "offering your help" in filling out the blanks. You see, it's not so easy and will take some push and work. However, I think it's worth it!

OBJECTIVES OF NAEB

To promote, by united effort and mutual cooperation the dissemination of knowledge by and of radio and television broadcasting to the end that benefits of both technical and educational features of broadcasting may be extended to all.

WHO BELONGS TO NAEB

There are, at the present time, 98 ACTIVE members; 81 ASSOCIATE members; 17 AFFILIATE members and 1 HONORARY member of NAEB. These members are to be found in 40 states and two territories of the USA. Applications for membership in NAEB are being processed each week.

WHO MAY BELONG TO NAEB

ACTIVE: Any university, college, school or other educational, cultural or public service agency, organization or association of recognized standing which is actively engaged in educational, cultural and public service, non-commercial broadcasting over a radio and/or television station or stations regularly licensed to it by the Federal Communications Commission, or holding a construction permit for such a station or stations, may be elected to ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP.

ASSOCIATE: Any university, college, school or other educational, cultural or public service agency, organization or association of recognized standing which is actively engaged in the production and broadcasting of educational, cultural and public service radio and/or television programs but not eligible for Active Membership may be elected to ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP.

AFFILIATE: Any university, college, school or other cultural or public service agency, organization or association not eligible for Active or Associate Membership, or any individual interested in or seeking to promote education, cultural and public service broadcasting may be elected to AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP.

HONORARY: Any individual who shall have made outstanding contributions to the Association as a representative of a Member in good standing, or any individual who shall have made a significant contribution to educational, cultural and public service broadcasting may, by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors, be elected to HONORARY MEMBERSHIP.

WHAT DOES IT COST

Costs of Active Membership are based on the power rating of the station. Class A: 5 kw or above, $50 per year; Class B: 1 kw to .9 kw, $25 per year; Class C: Less than 1 kw, $15 per year. For Associate or Affiliate Membership, the membership fee is a flat charge of $10 per year. All classes of membership receive the NAEB NEWS LETTER which is issued monthly. All ACTIVE members are eligible to join the NAEB TAPE NETWORK. Costs for this again are based on power ratings. ASSOCIATE members will be eligible to participate in the Radio and TV Script Exchange at a fee which will adequately cover the costs of operating the exchange.

The following applications for membership in NAEB have been received from headquarters:

SPRINGFIELD, MASS. TRADE HIGH SCHOOL WEDK-FM (CP from FCC)

ACTIVE

Accredited by Massachusetts State Department of Education

Hope to be on the air by May 6, 1953 on 91.7 mc with 10 watts. Hours of operation: 9 to 12 a.m. and 6 to 9 p.m. No instruction offered in broadcasting and no programs aired over commercial outlets.

Physical facilities consist of combination transmitter and control room and small studio together with a completely equipped modern auditorium. Ten Watt composite transmitter assembled by post-graduate students in radio technician classes. Gates consolette, 2 Gates turntables, 2 RCA veolcity and one Turner dynamic mikes. Presto tape and disc recorders. Development of studios and equipment depends on how TV goes in state.

Two part-time paid staff. Propose to broadcast rather extensive array of programs "for every grade level, especially in fields of music, social studies and science". "It is intended that pupil participation shall be outstanding feature of the programs scheduled for our students". Station designed to serve all of the 39 schools in Springfield, Mass. school system. Rather active department of technical radio.

Application made by William J. Sanders, Supt. of Schools.

STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE FOR TEACHERS, Buffalo, N. Y.

ASSOCIATE

Application made by D. Paul Smay, Director of Visual Education

Completing two years of TV programming over WEEN-TV, 15 minutes each Monday thru Friday. Another series, quarter hour, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday each week. All programs related to work of college in various areas of specialization and are under directorship of Audio-Visual dept. Radio program over WKEW, half hour, each week on problems dealing with issues in modern education and the public schools. TV programs have covered fields of art, music, industrial arts, photography, economics, child development, history, sociology, geography, home economics, architecture, health. More than 100 teachers and 200 students have participated in broadcasts during the past two years. Supported state-wide TV program for state of New York.

OFFICE, COUNTY SUPT. SCHOOLS, LOS ANGELES, California

ASSOCIATE

Application made by Helen Rachford, Director of Audio-Visual Education

Applicant sends along Radio Listening Guide and Look and Listen for eight radio programs and four TV programs which are done regularly over 9 AM outlets and 4 TV outlets. No studio facilities and no instruction in broadcasting.

From exhibits, I would say that Office does a very good job of in-school broadcasting over commercial outlets and a very fine job of utilization in the schools. All materials well organized and planned. Apparently, good cooperation from commercial outlets.

Please cast your votes for the three applicants, based on thumb-nail accounts as given by the Chairman of the Membership Committee:

Dear Mr. Sanders:

Please permit me to welcome you to membership in the NAEB and to assure you of our interest in making the full facilities of our organization available to you in any way wherein we may be of service.

The National Association of Educational Broadcasters, now 28 years old, has always been the voice of educational institutions and individuals who are interested in utilizing radio and television as an educational tool. During the past several years the organization has increased its activities many times and its scope of influence. You are, no doubt, aware of the NAEB Tape Network whereby many of the world's finest programs are made available for broadcasting on the educational stations throughout the country. This activity has expanded from a three programs per week "bicycle" network to direct service on approximately eight hours of programming per week. During the past twelve months, through direct negotiations with countries of Western Europe, we have increased the flow of cultural and informational programs in both directions to a considerable extent and expect to expand our international exchange considerably during the current year.

Each year NAEB conducts several seminars and workshops for the upgrading of personnel and through a grants-in-aid program made possible by the Fund for Adult Education has been able to contribute to the improvement of programming on the local level to a significant extent. We hope to continue to serve the needs of educational radio and television stations and educational radio and television production groups increasingly in the future.

I trust that your membership in NAEB will offer stimulating and rewarding contacts, information, and services during the year ahead. Please feel free to call upon me directly or upon our headquarters office for any services we may be able to render.

Very sincerely yours,

Graydon Ausmus

Dear Miss Blason:

Not even the post office can give any explanation of why the letter addressed to Mr. Spruell was returned to you. We all hope it won't happen again.

I have been remiss, however, in not informing you earlier that budget difficulties force our dropping out of the network this fall. Frankly, we just don't have the $250, even though the program offerings are worth far more than that. You may recall that we were able to belong to the network only six months last year. Even that is not possible this year.

You are doing a great service for those whose budgets will meet the reasonable assessments made. I hope we can be a part of the network again in the future.

Dear Mrs. Dalton:

I am very happy to inform you officially that the Board of Directors of the NAEB has approved the application of the Television Committee of the Junior League of Charlotte for affiliate membership in our association.

You will now be receiving regularly from us the monthly NAEB Newsletter, additional publications of interest, and many other things. You should, of course, feel free to write this office at any time for any information concerning educational broadcasting.

Under separate cover we are sending you a copy of the NAEB Radio-TV Bibliography.

You will note that you are classed as an affiliate member. The association in its 1952 convention decided that now was the time to broaden its membership base, hence, it created a new type of membership known as affiliate.

By definition, active members own and operate their own stations; associate members regularly produce programs for use over stations they do not own. Affiliate members neither own their own stations nor produce programs regularly but are interested in educational broadcasting and wish to be kept informed of its progress.

Anyone who is an affiliate member of this organization and who at any time in the future qualifies for either associate or active membership can automatically be put in those classes merely by notifying the Executive Director.

Perhaps the greatest good of an NAEB membership is the associations you form. It is good to know that others are having the same problems as you are and how they are solving them. Dear Graydon:

We were very pleased to learn that the Board of Directors of NAEB has officially approved our application for membership in the association.

Now that I have received your bill for $100 I have cause to question the reasons why we should join NAEB. Perhaps the question is academic in as much as joining NAEB seems to be "the thing to do" when you are in this business.

Harry Skornia's letter indicated that for our $100 membership we would be happy to know that others are having the same problems we are. While this is comforting, I think that we can achieve, the same end at less expense. I know the fine work NAEB does for tape network but I am very interested in knowing what the association has to offer a community television station that is only informally linked with educational institutions. I feel certain that you have given this some thought and I would appreciate knowing what the results of your thinking and that of your Board may be.

Dear Bert:

I keep finding the most fantastic things. For example I had the impression you were some kind of a member and were therefore on our mailing list. (Didn't you use to be? What happened?) I'm sorry to discover, in any case, that you aren't now. It is of course possible that you may have some reservations even if you know about the NAEB.

But I think you should at least see what we're doing, lately, so you can decide on the basis of facts. Therefore, under separate cover, we're sending you a pack of recent stuff. The way this organization is growing in services, and members is, I think encouraging.

For your information, also, WUNC-TV, WQED, KQED, KTHE, and WKAR-TV and WMA-TV are all members, and St. Louis' KETC application has also just been approved. All ETV stations are members, and I think increasingly satisfied ones.

Once again my apologies for not having checked more carefully on this before. If and as you become a member, receipt of all materials and services will be automatic of course.

On the attached, I hope you can send a key man to MSC to work with Brets and Stasheff. We're putting $12,000.00 into this one workshop to make it the best possible. It was planned also with the ETRC to insure increasing integration of the efforts of all concerned. I also hope your workshop, which you'll note that we've listed, succeeds and pulls several candidates.

Dear Mr. Goldhor:

I am sorry to inform you that the NAEB Board of Directors did not approve your application for membership in our association.

The Evansville Public Library does not meet our requirements for either an active or associate member.

However, you, yourself, may apply for an affiliate membership. This category is for individuals who are interested in educational broadcasting and who wish to be kept informed of progress.

TV Station KETC, Channel 9
St. Louis 5, Missouri

Dear Mr. Goggin:

I am very happy to inform you officially that the Board of Directors of the NAEB has approved your application in behalf of Station KETC for active membership in our association.

You will now be receiving regularly from us the monthly NAEB Newsletter, various additional publications of interest as they are published, and many other items. You should, of course, feel free to write to us at any time for any information you would like concerning educational broadcasting. We will always try to help.

Enclosed you will find a list of the materials available from the NAEB. Please let us know which of these you would like to receive and we will send them to you.

Also enclosed is an announcement of the NAEB fall convention and announcements of workshops and fellowships now available. Under separate cover we are sending you the last three Newsletters and several other items of interest. Your certificate of membership will be sent you soon.

Perhaps the greatest good of an NAEB membership is the associations you form. It's good to know that others are having the same problems you are and how they are solving them. It has been the tradition with NAEB, in its thirty years as the association of educators who broadcast, to exchange this sort of information on a friend-to-friend basis. You will find lots of friends in NAEB, and lots of people with good advice and good staff resources to supplement those which you have.

As I recall, the present modus operandi for processing membership applications came about as a result of some exceptionally long delays in notifying applicants as to whether or not they had been accepted for membership. Perhaps in our haste we have been a little too speedy.

It has been apparent for some time that many of the applicants do not always give us much information about themselves. I have always tried to sum up as best I can such information as has come in....feeling in some instances that directors and committee members might not want to take time to read some rather voluminous accounts of the virtues and vices of the applicants.

I agree heartily with Harry that something must be done to at least give some indication we're interested in "STANDARDS". I believe it is perfectly in order for all applications to be sent to the Regional Directors FIRST...that is to the regional director in whose region the applicant would be a part.

Now this is o.k. IF the regional directors will REALLY do something about investigating the status of the applicant and giving us some pertinent information. BUT if the regional director will simply let the application lie on his desk or even get lost in the shuffle...then I would be against such a procedure. It seems to be that the success of such a procedure then depends ENTIRELY on the individual directors who would be contacted.

And this investigation should not be just a perfunctory one. If additional information is required about applicant's operation...then it should fall to the regional director to get such information as a supplement to the application.

I am in favor of trying this method until the Fall Convention in dear Ole New York.

Dr. Gordon Ausmus
University of Alabama
University, Alabama

I need some information, Gordon, and some of your expert advice. I see that the National Association of Educational Broadcasters will be holding its annual meeting in New York City October 27-30.

Will you fill me in on the NAEB and who makes up its membership, and how it serves the educational field? As you know we are moving into a pretty extensive program in the educational fields of both radio and television, and it occurs to me that probably we should have a membership in NAEB.

Do institutions take out memberships, or are memberships held by individuals who teach and work in the field of educational broadcasting? If institutions hold memberships what is the annual fee, and if individuals hold memberships what is such fee?

Perhaps answers to the above questions will set me straight on the forthcoming convention, but I am interested to know if you think we should be represented at that meeting. I shall appreciate any of your suggestions in regard to our future relationships with this Association.

Incidentally, we are going ahead with construction of our studios for both radio and television, but will have to await action of Legislature next spring before we can proceed in equipping the television studios. I see frequent mention of your program and its progress, and while I suspect you are not getting everything you want, I hope you are getting sufficient support for an adequate job.

With sincere personal regards, I am

Cordially yours,

Rae O. Weimer

Mr. Rae O. Welmer, Director
School of Journalism
University of Florida
Gainesville, Florida

Dear Rae:

My apologies for the delay in replying to your letter of September 25. At this busy period of getting the station going and trying to get set for the NAEB Fall Convention, I am rather behind schedule on correspondence.

In direct reply to your question, without question the University of Florida should hold membership in the National Association of Educational Broadcasters. This is the one organization representing non-commercial educational radio and TV stations and production centers. Of the approximate one hundred and fifteen educational radio and TV stations in the country, one hundred and five are ACTIVE members of NAEB. Of about one hundred institutions producing radio or television programs but not operating their own station, eighty five are ASSOCIATE members of NAEB. We have about seventy five individual or ASSOCIATE members who are individuals teaching radio or television or just interested in educational broadcasting. NAEB represents and promotes the interest of all of these three levels. At the present time only active members hold a vote but a constitutional amendment is up for approval at the Fall Convention which proposes to give the vote to associate members also. Frankly, I do not have the scale of membership dues at this moment but I am asking Harry Skornia, our Executive Director, to forward these to you immediately.

I definitely feel that you should be represented at the NAEB Convention in New York because it will be an introduction for you to the organization and you will learn a great deal from the Convention. The program looks very excellent indeed. As to the type of membership you should hold in NAEB, you are eligible for active membership if you are operating your FM station as a non-commercial educational enterprise. If you establish only production studios in TV and do not operate a station as above, you will be eligible for associate membership. If neither of the above possibilities is true, you should certainly take an individual membership. Active and associate memberships are institutional. Affiliates are individual memberships.

October 12, 1954

NAEB is thirty years old, cooperatively operates an FM radio network service of eight hours a week and is the only organization in this whole field which has a guarantee of longevity. Should JCET, NCCET, and the Program Center fold up at any time in the future, NAEB would assume the on-going functions of these organizations. We recommended and participated in the creation of all three of these groups to help at this period of great expansion in educational television. It is anticipated that the ETRC (Program Center) will continue but that JCET and NCCET may reduce their operations over the next year or so to the point of nonexistence.

Time being of the essence, I will leave the balance of the NAEB story to Skornia and repeat my above statements that you should be members of NAEB and you should attend the NAEB Fall Convention.

May I congratulate you upon the progress you are making - I continue to get reports on your development - and repeat my previous offers of assistance at any time when I can be helpful.

Our own development here is moving rapidly. At this moment the noise of trip hammers, concrete mixers, and other renovation and addition activities under us and on all sides of us is enough to drive a man crazy. We anticipate launching programs by January of '55.

My warmest and kindest personal regards. I hope I may have the pleasure of seeing you in New York.

Sincerely yours,

Graydon Ausmus

You will now be receiving regularly from us the monthly NAEB Newsletter, various additional publications of interest as they are published, and many other items. You should, of course, feel free to write to us at any time for any information you would like concerning educational broadcasting. We will always try to help.

Enclosed you will find a list of the materials available from the NAEB. Please let us know which of these you would like to receive and we will send them to you. Under separate cover we are sending you a Directory of Members. Your certificate of membership will be sent to you soon.

Perhaps the greatest good of an NAEB membership is the associations you form. It's good to know that others are having the same problems you are and how they are solving them. It has been the tradition with NAEB, in its thirty years as the association of educators who broadcast, to exchange this sort of information on a friend-to-friend basis. You will find lots of friends in the NAEB, and lots of people with good advice and good staff resources to supplement those which you have.

Sincerely,

Harry J. Skornia
Executive Director

Dear Mr. Engler:

Please permit me to welcome you to membership in the NAEB and to assure you of our interest in making the full facilities of our organization available to you in any way wherein we may be of service.

The National Association of Educational Broadcasters, now 28 years old, has always been the voice of educational institutions and individuals who are interested in utilizing radio and television as an educational tool. During the past several years the organization has increased its activities many times and its scope of influence. You are, no doubt, aware of the NAEB Tape Network whereby many of the world's finest programs are made available for broadcasting on the educational stations throughout the country. This activity has expanded from a three programs per week "bicycle" network to direct service on approximately eight hours of programming per week. During the past twelve months, through direct negotiations with countries of Western Europe, we have increased the flow of cultural and informational programs in both directions to a considerable extent and expect to expand our international exchange considerably during the current year.

Each year NAEB conducts several seminars and workshops for the upgrading of personnel and through a grants-in-aid program made possible by the Fund for Adult Education has been able to contribute to the improvement of programming on the local level to a significant extent. This year we have created a special committee within the organization to devote particular attention to the problems of our associate members, and two special committees are spending a considerable amount of time to the problems of school stations. We hope to continue to serve the needs of educational radio and television production groups increasingly in the future.

I trust that your membership in NAEB will offer stimulating and rewarding contacts, information, and services during the year ahead. Please feel free to call upon me or upon our headquarters office for any services we may be able to render.

Very sincerely yours,

Graydon Ausmus
President

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF EDUCATIONAL BROADCASTERS

NAEB

OFFICE OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
119 GREGORY HALL
URBANA, ILLINOIS

January 26, 1953

Mr. Leslie W. Engler
Professor and Dean of Administration
The City College of the College of the City of New York
139th Street and Convent Avenue
New York 31, New York

Dear Mr. Engler:

I am very happy to inform you officially that the Board of Directors of the NAEB has approved your application for affiliate membership in our association.

You will now be receiving regularly from us the monthly NAEB News-Letter, additional publications of interest, and many other things. You should, of course, feel free to write to this office at any time for any information concerning educational broadcasting.

Under separate cover, we are sending you a copy of the NAEB Radio-Television Bibliography, which is issued to all NAEB members. We trust you will find it useful.

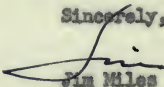

Perhaps you will note that you are classed as an affiliate member. The association at its last convention in Minneapolis decided that now was the time to broaden its membership base. Hence, it created a new type of membership known as affiliate.

By definition, active members own and operate their own stations. Associate members regularly produce programs for use over stations they do not own. Affiliate members neither own their own stations nor produce programs regularly but are interested in educational broadcasting and wish to be kept informed of its progress.

Any one who is an affiliate member of this organization and who at any time in the future qualifies for either associate or active membership can automatically be put in those classes merely by notifying the Executive Director.

Perhaps the greatest good of an NAEB membership is the associations you form. It's good to know that others are having the same problems you are and how they are solving them. It has been the tradition with NAEB to exchange this sort of information on a friend-to-friend basis. You'll find lots of friends in NAEB.

Sincerely,

Jim Miles
Executive Director

Waldorf-Astoria, 305 Park Avenue, New York

As I understand it, there is no such thing as an accrediting agency for such an organization. Therefore, I rule we pass this important question. Application made by Luella Hoskins, Consultant on Radio & TV. Apparently, organization very much interested in promoting educational TV. This from small amount of literature available from them.

WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY, Cleveland, Ohio

ASSOCIATE

No accrediting agency stated. Investigation shows, however, North Central Association.

Staff of five. Broadcast 9 TV and 2 radio programs weekly over WEWS-TV, WGAR and WJW, commercial outlets. Apparently no studios or facilities of their own. Both graduate and undergraduate work offered in radio and TV.

Application made by Barclay Leathem

PROVIDENCE BIBLE INSTITUTE, Providence, R. I. WPTL-FM

ACTIVE

Accredited by Collegiate Division of the Accrediting Association of Bible Institutes and Bible Colleges.

Owns and operates WPTL-FM, 91.5 mc, 1000 watt power, 3200 w. erp. On air weekdays from 2:57 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.; Sundays, 9:42 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. Station established Feb. 22, 1948 and is under supervision of Radio Department. Does not engage in any other broadcasting. One course in radio speech. Paid staff of 8 full time and 2 part-time people. No description of studios; technical equipment standard and apparently from listing of good quality and above average in quantity.

Program schedule submitted for entire week. Shows influence of Bible college but not objectionably so. Rather good schedule and shows some careful planning and showmanship.

Application made by Thomas M. Robertson, Manager of WPTL-FM

JUDITH W. GAYLOR, 504 W. 112th Street, New York

AFFILIATE

Not so actively engaged in educational broadcasting at present. Interested in future of educational broadcasting, especially TV. AB, Smith College, Major in Theatre and Radio. Professional work in radio; production assistant for Ford Radio Theatre. Actor's Agent; past 3 years has been working in theatre with college students and faculty thru Episcopal Church in New York City.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Berkeley, California

AFFILIATE

Accredited by Western College Association, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education and A.A.U.

Offers no work in radio or TV.

20 November 1952

Mr. James S. Miles
119 Gregory Hall
University of Illinois
Urbana, Illinois

Dear Jim:

I am enclosing several copies of the convention registration. I suggest that you have one of your secretaries break this down as to total number of registrants, number of states, number of foreign countries represented, etc., in order that you may have some convention statistics to present in the next News-Letter.

I am unfortunately in no position to offer any resumes as to what went on in the meetings! However, I do have tapes of the talks given by Humphrey, Walker, and Tyler, and also of the Thursday afternoon Siegel session arranged by Leonard Marks. I am sending these to you under separate cover in order that you may refer to them in writing the report of the meetings and also so that you may consider them for offering on the NAEB tape network if you so desire.

I shall also dig up a few copies of the text of Walker's talk so that you may refer to them.

In regard to the new stationery which you referred to on page 2 of your November 14 letter to Graydon, may I suggest that you so arrange the officers' names so as to include the secretary up with the president, vice president, and treasurer? The implication of the stationery we now use is that the secretary is not a full member of the official family which is not the case. So treat yourself to the acclaim you deserve and see that your position is put up at the top as you deserve!

Yours sincerely,

Burton Paulu
Vice President

P. S. Sorry, I do not have the text of Walker's talk. As soon as I get one, I shall send you a copy.
